WORLD DEMANDS

AMERICAN CREDIT

Raising Blockade Quickens Foreign Inquiry for New York Loans.

STERLING HAS BIG DROP

Urgent Need of Stabilizing New York and London Exchange Is Shown.

By WILLIAM JUSTUS BOIES.

With the return to the United States of the financial experts who visited Paris as advisers of the American delegates to the Peace Conference...

Financing Foreign Trade.

These developments emphasized what was said in this column several weeks ago concerning the overshadowing importance in stock market affairs of money market influences during the latter half of 1919.

If that should be done, all other foreign exchange rates would be benefited, as London is still the world's greatest exchange market...

It would take England more than twelve years to liquidate its indebtedness to the United States if it used for that purpose the gold production of the British Empire.

But the foreign nations need American foodstuffs, raw material and merchandise, and will make immense purchases in this country as soon as they get the opportunity to do so.

Providing Dollar Credits.

It is admitted that the continuance of a high premium abroad for New York Exchange operates to restrict purchases of American goods by foreign buyers.

Coordinating Relief Agencies.

The bankers' committee of this city, the Federal Reserve Board and the Treasury authorities will discuss with the President the programme for organization of the nation wide syndicate to finance those extraordinary demands.
